

Identification of material issues

To develop its business activities, the Ajinomoto Group identifies the materiality items that have a substantial impact on the Group's ability to create value through ASV and determines their order of importance and priority.

Plans for the future

- Carry out concrete activities based on the restructured materiality.
- Collect feedback from stakeholders on the restructured materiality.
- Review materiality every year with the fast changing social conditions.